Integrated Education Fund - Odd Socks Day

As a College we are holding an 'odd socks day' on 15th March 2018 in support of the Integrated Education Fund (IEF). The IEF is a registered charity which is entirely dependent on fundraising. The IEF believe that educating all children together is an essential part of the reconciliation process and of building a society that celebrates respect, understanding and friendships across traditional divides.

Students can wear non uniform in addition to wearing odd socks and are asked to make a donation of £1.

Thank you for your continued support.
